

10 REASONS TO TAKE PRIDE IN IOWA PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Great public schools are a promise we make as Iowans to our next generation of leaders, innovators and citizens.

1 STUDENTS SERVED

Iowa public schools serve 483,451 K-12 students in 333 community school districts—94% of students enrolled in school. Iowa invests $5.9 billion annually in public schools and ranks 27th nationally in spending, an average of $10,622 per student.

2 PRESCHOOL

Iowa has expanded access to voluntary preschool for 4-year-olds, up from 77% of school districts offering preschool in 2007-08 to 97% of districts in 2014-15, now serving about 61% of Iowa 4-year-olds. Iowa ranks 7th nationally in access to preschool and 35th in state spending.

3 EARLY LITERACY

A statewide initiative to ensure strong reading skills by 3rd grade is beginning to show results: 14,000 more Iowa students went from missing reading benchmarks to meeting them, a statewide increase of 7% in two years.

4 STEM

A statewide focus on STEM is promoting hands-on, project based learning, internships and mentorships in STEM occupations to prepare students for careers and strengthen the economy. Enrollment in advanced level math and science courses is growing: 45.3% of graduates enrolled in higher-level math classes in 2015-16, up from 25.7% in 2006-07.

5 ENGLISH LEARNERS

Iowa public schools are serving a growing population of students learning English, up from 11,248 students in 2000-01 to 27,241 students in 2015-16, or 5.7% of all students. The graduation rate for students with limited English proficiency has increased from 64% in 2009 to 82.9% in 2015.
